

Travel and subsistence expenses for the period of 01 April 2024 - 31 March 2025 (Sheriffs Principal, Sheriffs and Summary Sheriffs).

Members of the shireval judiciary may claim travel and subsistence expenses incurred in the course of their judicial duties. Such expenses are only claimable for travel undertaken on official judicial business. Overnight expenses may be claimed only where the judicial office holder is unable to return home due to judicial commitments.

Some Sheriffs Principal and Sheriffs are also appointed as temporary Judges of the Court of Session and like Senators are required to attend circuit courts.

Sheriffs Principal are required to visit various courts within their shireffdom and may also sit in the Sheriff Appeal Court in Edinburgh.

Certain Sheriffs and Summary Sheriffs are designated as "floating judiciary," meaning they sit in multiple courts within their shireffdom as required.

The table below outlines the costs incurred in carrying out these judicial duties during the specified period.

Travel and subsistence expenses for the period of 01 April 2024 - 31 March 2025 (Scottish Land Court/Lands Tribunal for Scotland).

Judicial office holders of the Scottish Land Court and the Lands Tribunal for Scotland may claim travel and subsistence expenses incurred in the course of their judicial duties. Such expenses are only claimable for travel undertaken on official judicial business.

Given the national jurisdiction of the Court and Tribunal, members may be required to travel to various locations across Scotland to hear cases.

The table below outlines the costs incurred in carrying out these duties during the specified period.
